Faith Moment Reflection

In his second letter to the Corinthians, St. Paul teaches us about fidelity, even in the face of great challenges. Fidelity is the quality of being faithful or loyal – we often think of it in terms of a spouse, our family, or friends. But Paul is talking about fidelity with God. Paul underwent many hardships and much persecution as he lived out his faith as a Christian. Still, he remained loyal, admitting his weaknesses while relying on God to overcome them. When we surrender, as Paul did, relying on God, our weakness becomes our strength. Even in the face of rejection, we must do what is right. Persevere. Keep going. God is always with us and ever-faithful to us. The power of Christ dwells within us to strengthen our fidelity...with God and with one another.

Today's Faith Moment was provided by Christ the King Seminary. You can listen to Faith Moments on WBEN radio 930 AM, WLOF 101.7 FM, or at www.faithmomentsonline.org.

Permanent Diaconate. Do you feel called to serve the Church through the Word, Liturgy, and Charity? If you are a male, between the ages of 30-55, and would like to know more about the diaconate, contact Deacon Tim Chriswell. To set up an appointment, call the Office of the Permanent Diaconate at 716-652-4308 or email DOBDiaconate@cks.edu.

Marriage Moment. In a healthy marriage both spouses strive to be good and strong. But sometimes it is through recognizing our weakness that we can grow stronger. What a mystery! "...for when I am weak, then I am strong." (2 Cor. 12:10) Can you identify a weakness in yourself that has punctured your pride and made you a better spouse?

Parenting Perspective. "Is he [Jesus] not the carpenter; the son of Mary...?" (Mark 6:3) We inherit both physical and personality traits from our parents. It can be a source of parental pride, but also consternation. Talk with your child about what strengths and weaknesses they might have received from you.

USCCB-Word of Life: "Gracious Father, I thank you for the mercy you have shown in forgiving my sins and for the peace that comes from being reconciled with you and with your Church." –"Trust in God's Mercy"

Journey Into Love. The Office of Family Life Ministries needs married couples willing to give of their time for a 20-minute talk to share their experiences with engaged couples at our Journey Into Love monthly diocesan program. The commitment can be as much or as little time as you are available; even just once a year would be helpful. Contact the Family Life Office at 716-847-2210 or email familylife@buffalodiocese.org for more details.
