Catholic Charities is a children's health home provider through Encompass Family Health Home. If you are feeling overwhelmed with keeping up with your child's medical care and physical, dental, and/or mental health appointments, Catholic Charities can help. Through the Health Home, children and their families are given a network of providers, health plans, and community-based organizations that work to ensure the child's needs are met, including physical, dental, mental health, or simple support. To learn more about the program and eligibility requirements, visit www.ccnny.org/encompass\_health\_home or call 716-218-1400, ext. 2012.

Marriage Moment. Research studies show that men who kiss their wives before leaving in the morning live five years longer than those who don't. Don't want to be a widower? Remember this. Although I haven't done the research, I suppose this works in the reverse too (wives kissing their husbands before leaving).

Parenting Perspective. The commandments tell us not to lie, steal, murder, or commit adultery. That's pretty clear. However, sins of greed, selfishness, or general meanness are not always as clear. What actions and attitudes create unhappiness in your family? Ask your kids.

Faith Moment Reflection

Christians are called to be disciples of Jesus, faithfully living His Word in their daily lives. The readings today remind us that discipleship is not always easy. Isaiah describes being beaten, insulted and spit upon because of his devotion to God. But rather than compromise his faith, Isaiah "set his face like flint" against those who opposed him and remained firmly committed to God's Word. Hopefully, our faith today will not draw such severe hostility and abuse. But when we do face hardships or challenges, God is always near to help us stand strong. Our commitment to discipleship may require us to "set our face like flint" from time to time. However, the reward for doing so is the ultimate triumph of God's love. Remember what Isaiah tells us: "The Lord God is my help; who will prove me wrong?"
