Faith Moment Reflection

No doubt, we live in a competitive world. That's why it's important to pay particular attention to today's readings and what they teach us about competition. Contrary to popular belief, competition does not always bring out the best in us. Often, competition causes us to withhold from one another. We compete for the biggest house...the fanciest car...the highest office. We may win, but it is almost always at someone else's expense. Jesus tells us that God gave us our talents and gifts to build up the kingdom of God. He demonstrates that competition is good when it enriches the lives of others, when we work together as a team and build our community. Next time you are in a competitive situation, stop and think about what is driving you. How you might turn that competition into cooperation that will benefit everyone involved.
