CATHOLIC CHARITIES

HOPE Day is coming! The annual Catholic Charities Appeal's one-day "above and beyond" fundraising effort is Wednesday, May 17. Last year donors contributed $310,850 in 24 hours and this year we are aiming for another successful one-day giving blitz. Be sure to follow our Facebook and Instagram pages for more details on how you can make a contribution, help spread the word, and to track our progress on HOPE Day! Appeal 2023 is ongoing through June 30. To make a donation, visit www.ccnny.org/donate or text GIVEHOPE23 to 44321 today.

Hail, Holy Queen, mother of mercy, our life, our sweetness and our hope. To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve. To thee do we send up our sighs, mourning and weeping in this valley of tears. Turn then, most gracious advocate, thine eyes of mercy toward us, and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb, Jesus. O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary! Pray for us, O holy Mother of God, that we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ. Amen

VOCATION VIEW

Acts of the Apostles Chapter 6, recounts the ordination of the first Deacons. The earliest church had deacons, and this ancient calling is still open today. If Jesus is calling you to ordained ministry, contact Fr. Dave Baker at 716-847-5535 or visit bukalovocations.org.

Background on the Gospel Reading

The readings for the last few Sundays have been about the Resurrection, but today's Gospel takes us back in time to an event in Jesus' life before his Passion. Jesus tells his disciples that he is going to prepare a place for them in his Father's house. He promises that where he is going, his disciples will be able to follow. Thomas, who will later doubt the disciples' reports that they have seen the Risen Lord, contradicts Jesus by saying that the disciples don't know where Jesus is going or how to get there. Jesus explains that he himself is the way, the truth, and the life. In knowing and loving Jesus, the disciples now love God the Father.

Philip then makes a request that challenges Jesus' words. Philip wants Jesus to show the Father to the disciples. Recall that Jesus has just told his disciples, "If you know me, then you will also know my Father. From now on you do know him and have seen him." As a good teacher, Jesus responds to Philip by repeating and elaborating on what he has just told the disciples: they have seen and known Jesus, so they have seen and known the Father. Then Jesus offers another reassurance about his departure: because of faith in God and in Jesus, the disciples will do the work that Jesus has done and more.

The connection between Jesus and his Father, between Jesus' work and the work of the Father, is made clear in today's Gospel. Jesus is in the Father, and God the Father is in Jesus. As God spoke his name to Moses, "I am," so too Jesus speaks his name to his disciples: "I am the way and the truth and the life."

The revelation of the Trinity is completed in the passage that follows today's reading, and it is the Gospel for next Sunday. Because Jesus goes away, the Father will send in Jesus' name the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, who will continue the work of the Father and of Jesus.

Mother's Day Envelopes

Envelopes are located in the front and back of the church. Kindly place the name of your mother, living or deceased, on the envelope and place your offering in the envelope. You may place the envelope in the weekend collection. All Mothers, living and deceased will be remembered in special parish Masses.
